

We have Solutions for everybody!

Integrated Power Technology can advise and support the client throughout the whole design and development process. Our team will develope a solution that supports your needs bith now and in the future.

We have the ability to build and transport your solutions anywhere in the world. Coupled with complete building integration our solutions are second to none.